

How are things changing?

Look at the pictures and think about how things might change for Frida and her family in the future. Will the changes make life better or worse? why do you think that?

